426/16

Emil Passburg, Berlin,
serial#231,718, filed Novr 7th 1904,
Dried beer and process,

German patent November 11th 1903,

Beer in the form of a dry powder resulting from the evaporation to dryness of beer....

Process for the production of a dry beer-preserve, consisting in abstracting at a low temperature the water alcohol andcarbonic acid from beer in a vacuum evaporating apparatus and in grinding the residue to a powder,

289 of 1874, U.S. 169,818,